Dear Mr. Rucci,

I want to take this time to express my gratitude to you and everyone at the California Palms who played an intricate part in my recovery. I'll start by saying that I really didn't want to go another rehab because they are usually all the same. They have the same classes with the same messages and they really didn't truly care or know what it's like to live the life of an addict; especially a heroin addict in today's world. So at first, I was very hesitant to give this recovery thing another shot, but as I got settled in I just began to feel different. It was a certain comfort that I felt there like no-where else I've ever been, and I've attended numerous rehab facilities. Everything about the Palms made me start to see that dim light at the end of the tunnel. The programming, the classes, the mixture of treating mind, body, and spirit is what I really needed. I was never bored and loved the design of the building as well - who doesn't like palm trees? lol

Today I feel like me. I have over 7 months clean and I am really starting to gain some momentum in my career. I have the tools to be successful in the future because of what I learned during my stay. I was always so quick to look at all the negativity that surrounded my life, but everyone loved me when I couldn't love myself. That is why I'm on the path to freedom. Freedom of self and freedom from the bondage of addiction one day at a time.

Thank you so much Sebastian and Cali Palms team,
