

Hey Buddy,

I wanted to let you know how grateful I am that you gave me a chance at life its because of your place and you is why I have this second chance at life. I believe in you and respect you for everything your trying to do in order to help the addicts. It takes a really good person to put his heart and soul in doing this I know you are a cool dude, Thanks for your time.

